at 1600 on Thursday 04 Nov 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
A cloudier day for most on Friday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Early evening showers fading leaving long clear spells for many, especially southern UK. Cloudier conditions, with patchy rain, will then spread southwards across most of the UK. A cold night, touch of frost for many.

Friday:
Bright start for southern England and East Anglia before turning cloudier later. Elsewhere, rather cloudy with patchy rain, mainly in the west, and the odd break in the east.

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Typical autumnal weather with strong winds and rain in the northwest, moving southeast followed by brighter weather with showers. Southern areas mainly dry with sunny spells. Temperatures around average.
